it was a cold, white winter

here's howe . . . in 1951

THERE WERE ADDITIONS TO OUR FACULTY, NEW CLASSES, AND NEW FRIENDS. WE CHOSE OUR FIRST BASKETBALL QUEEN, AND PRACTICED AIR-RAID DRILLS. WE WON FAME IN ATHLETICS, AND RECEIVED ACADEMIC HONORS. SOME OF THE SENIORS WORE UNIFORMS INSTEAD OF CAPS AND GOWNS. ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES ARE REVIEWED EVENTS AT HOWE IN 1951.

here's howe

Here's how we met in the alcove before school. It was as much a part of Howe as the Brown and Gold. This familiar scene is typical from September to June, from one year to the next. At the lower left is another Howe reminder—the library check-out desk.

Corsages, formals best suits, and a crowd
... it could be none other than the Brown and Gold.

While dancing to the music of Barton Roger's band, we wondered who would reign as our Brown Boy and Golden Girl.

Between dances we took time out for a coke and a chat with our friends.

LOWER LEFT—Judith Morrow was selected as a delegate to represent Howe at the United
with Principal C. M. Sharp, she gets last minute instructions before flying to New York.

Who is seen at basketball games, the Pleasant Run Revue, the music festival, and most of the activities here at Howe involving tickets and general managing? It could be none other than
Mr. Paul Klinge's business managers.

These hard working boys see that everything runs smoothly.
Their duties are many, but they always seem to get them accomplished. Pictured at the left going over the day's receipts are Dick Miller, Jack Callon, Bob
Luke, Jim Bowman, Roderick
Macy, and Jim Hollenbeck.

honor and glory in 1951

An unusual scene in any convention, but it's only the beginning. All is quiet for now but wait until later. Then the speeches will begin. As is the custom, the rules, platform, and credentials committees make their reports to the convention. At the lower left the rules committee report is being given.

TOP—In 1951 the D. A. R. Award for Citizenship went to Janet Callon.

BOTTOM—The American Legion recognized Farrell Patrick and Sara Spradling for citizenship honors in the Spring of 1950.

ABOVE—The Senior Hi-Y chose Ben Gorman as Philosopher for the May Pageant. In cap and gown he crowns Judy Springer, Violet Queen.

ABOVE RIGHT—The year 1951 saw Ginny Sentman crowned as the first Basketball Queen. Candidates were selected by the basketball teams and the queen was chosen by the student vote. Posing in letter sweaters are Suzie Wallace, Sally Sferruzzi, Queen Ginny, Carol Strothers, and Angie Evans.

"our miss brooks"

On March 15 and 16, the Footlight Revelers Club presented "Our Miss Brooks," a three-act comedy from original material by R. J. Mann, dramatized by Perry Clark.

Tricia Baker played the role of Miss Brooks, the fun-loving English teacher, and Bob Luke was Hugo, the athletic coach, and unsuspecting object of Miss Brooks' affections.

Miss Brooks and Hugo spend a great deal of time arguing with each other. Then Miss Brooks discovers that to arouse Hugo's interest, she should become interested in his hobby, sailing. She does, with hilarious results. At the same time she is directing the school play, "Lost Horizon." Despite interference from the principal, Mr. Wadsworth; a rival teacher, Miss Audubon; and Mrs. Allen, a member of the school board, "Lost Horizon" is a success, and everything turns out all right.

Students poke fun at members of the faculty and school board.

STANDING — Malcolm Fryer, Janet Parker, Anna Applegate, Joan Hitchcock, John Gooch, Rita Nagle, Barbara Little, Mavis LaRue, Norman Wilkins, Jane Koten, Anne Harding.

BOTTOM LEFT—"I forgot my silverware again!" In the cafeteria, we caught up on all the news while we ate and listened to records.

TOP RIGHT—For the first time in the history of Howe the Hilltopper has included individual pictures of the underclassmen. The students purchased the pictures at the booth under the Tower stairs.

BOTTOM RIGHT—An atomic bomb or only sulphur and water? Sometimes the results in chemistry are surprising.

faculty and administration

There is the sharp staccato of Mrs. Genrich's typewriter and the steady click-clack of Miss Childers' adding machine. The automatic time-stamp clicks off the minutes, and, of course, the telephones jangle shrilly many times during the day. In the background, there is a steady hum of voices from both teachers and students as the day's business of Howe High School is taken care of from the main office.

Principal Charles M. Sharp

The teacher's cafeteria is a popular place with the faculty members. Here, they can eat, relax, and catch up on some of the happenings around school.

Standing behind the letters on pages 42 and 43 are members of the Senior Play cast, prompters, and Mr. Gooch, director. Left to right—Lewis, Brady, Enochs, Haskin, Lukenbill, Fouts, Meyer, Koten, Brehob, Harding, Morrow, Shreve, McMillan, Lowe, Simmons, Fryer, Laetsch, Steward, and Mr. Darrell Gooch.

Drama's highlight at Hawe this year unquestionably (according to the seniors) was the production of "Cheaper by the Dozen," which was written by Frank B. Gilbreth, Jr., and dramatized by Perry Clark. The Senior Play, directed by Mr. Gooch, proved to be an overwhelming success and showed the weeks of practice which the talented seniors put into it. Each of the three acts of the play provided unlimited fun and entertainment which will make the evenings of January 25 and 26 long to be remembered.

The freshmen find out, on the first day of school, that they don't need the bookstore tickets the upperclassmen sold them. It's still first come, first served in the line for school supplies.

Intramural Sports Have Good Year

Hawe's intramural sports program is rapidly developing into a well rounded, semester-round activity. The program has grown so that it now includes football, basketball, softball, badminton, valley ball, bowling, track, and baseball.

Any boy who is not on any of the school athletic teams may participate in this program. Mr. Lyman Combs is head of the program and does a very capable job in handling the various activities. Boys may organize their own teams and then submit the name of the team to Mr. Combs who will enter their team for league competition. Everything is in fun, and this is demonstrated clearly in the names of the teams, which include such monickers as "Hot Shots," "Fancy Pants," "Irish."

The basketball leagues, perhaps, are the most popular since their seasons are the longest. All winter the gym was used on Monday and Thursday nights as the boys went after the league championship. There are two leagues. One is for the freshman and sophomore boys, and the other for junior and senior boys. The members of the team which wins the league championship receive medals designating the sport in which they won them. These medals are of the keychain variety and may be displayed easily.

A lot of congratulations should be given Mr. Combs because he has developed the intramural program into a worthwhile and entertaining asset of our school.

UPPER RIGHT: This picture really shows the spirit of the intramural games. Everyone was so interested in getting the ball that he didn't care to "smile for the birdie."

Off On The Right Foot

Service, loyalty, friendship—these ideas express the purpose of the freshmen girls' club, Selofra. Club colors are represented by those that most people call to mind when they think of a freshman—green and light green.

Activities for the year included a talk on good grooming by the head of a beauty college, a Hallowe'en Party, a style show given by the members, a "Welcome Party" for January freshmen, and other activities that the four girls' clubs participated in together.

Officers of this club were: Carole Pryor, president; Nancy Endicott, vice-president; Helen Houser, secretary; and Marilyn Hughes, treasurer.

This year's sponsor was Miss Ellen O'Drain.

Oh, To Be A Sophomore Again!

LaNina, the sophomore girls' club, under the sponsorship of Miss Jerry Motley, was very busy this year.

They took part in the fall Welcome Party, the Christmas Party, and the Competitive Sing, which, this year, was combined with the Mother's Day Tea, and took the place of stunt day. These activities were done in cooperation with the other three girls' clubs.

Among their own individual activities there was a Valentine Party. At one meeting, Miss Shirley Diehl, from the Physical Education Department, demonstrated some new dance steps to the members.

Club colors are really prettier than they sound—red and light pink.

Officers this year were: Alice Ray, president; Eleanor VanDyke, vice-president; Jeanette Wills, secretary; Carol Carmichael, treasurer.

Junior Queens

Howe's violets were a very active bunch this year. They participated in a number of activities. Among these, the most well known is that of choosing the candidates for Violet Queen. Every year the Queen of Violets comes to Violet Hill to see the progress made by Howe students. It is this club's honor to have one of its members chosen Violet Queen.

Other activities of the club were a joint meeting with the Hi-Y for a discussion on dating problems, a fashion talk by a representative from a local department store, and a jitterbug contest.

Club colors are symbolic of royalty—violet and deep purple.

Officers who served the club this year were: Nyna Morton, president; Angie Evans, vice-president; Cathie Mosiman, secretary; Cynthia Hatfield, treasurer.

Mrs. Ruth Reed was the club sponsor this year.

Big Women on Campus

When girls at Howe reach their final year of school, they are eligible to belong to Hosegi, the senior girls' club. Club colors are navy and light blue. Hosegi members are so busy with studying (?) and other senior activities, that they meet only during the fall semester.

These girls decorate for the football and cross country banquet, and participate in the activities with the three other girls' clubs. Of special interest to Hosegi members are college guidance and vocational speakers. Interesting lectures are given on sororities, also.

Officers this year were: Jane Koten, president; Julie Schon, vice-president; Carol Wickes, secretary; Karel Kingham, treasurer.

Miss Jean Carpenter sponsored the club this year.

AND THE BAND PLAYS ON

What a thrilling sight it was to see the Howe Band, under the able direction of Mr. Robert Burford, come marching down the field at football games last fall. It was equally thrilling to sit spellbound while the band entertained with its exciting interpretations of concert selections. This year, the band has been raising money towards the purchase of new uniforms. The money received from the annual Band Festival, held this year on March 2, went to further this cause. Also at the Festival, a Mr. and Miss Music were chosen. Warren Roth and Beverly Weevie were elected to receive the titles. Other candidates were Larry Phillips, Bob Bronstrup, Ronnie Joyce, Alice Ray, Mary Bergen, and Charlotte Owens.

Serving as president and vice-president this year were Guy Doyal and Beverly Weevie, respectively.

PLAY, FIDDLES PLAY

The 1951 Howe Orchestra was directed by Miss Alberta Denk. This was Miss Denk's first year at Howe.

The orchestra this year was especially well-trained, and again it had the distinction of being one of the top high school orchestras in the state. It has performed for the senior play, the Footlight Revelers' play, and assembly programs.

In addition the orchestra presented its own concert on December 1. Paul Jump was featured as piano soloist on this program. He played the first movement of Beethoven's Concerto in C. Also on the program were vocalists Larry Phillips and Beverly Weevie.

Included in the repertoire of the orchestra this year were, Schubert's Unfinished Symphony, Strauss's Blue Danube, Selections from Jerome Kern, and Selections from South Pacific.

VOICE OF HOWE

The Howe Choir, under the inspiring direction of Frank S. Watkins, did its customary good work of selling Howe to the public. By singing at various programs in and outside of school, the choir has made itself known not only to Howe patrons and students, but also to the whole city and state. Among the many performances given by the choir this past year were appearances at the Monument Circle at Christmas, Downey Avenue Christian Church, Brightwood Methodist Church, and Howe's Community Christmas program. Besides appearing at assemblies honoring speakers and special events, the choir has given assemblies of its own.

May 4 was the date of the Vocal Music Festival. At this time the choir, assisted by the various glee clubs, gave a varied program of classical, semi-classical, and popular music. Among selections featured were "Showboat Medley," "The Holy City," and a dramatized version of "Little Red Riding Hood."

Phill Stevens served as accompanist this year.

Janet Paxton, glee club accompanist; Philip Stevens, chair accompanist; Norma Daak, glee club accompanist.

SMALL GROUPS MAKE BIG MUSIC

Mr. Robert Burford is also director of the B band, in which he trains the less experienced players. They are all working towards A band next year.

If the girls' octet with their director, Mr. Frank Watkins, seem a wee bit smug, it's because they've had a wonderful year, highlighted by singing at the governor's mansion. Their theme song is "When You're Smiling."

Close running with the octet are the Choralaires, a newly organized group of advanced girls' glee club members, also directed by Mr. Watkins. These girls are doing a wonderful job and made their first radio appearance on February 18.

The string quartets are directed by Miss Alberta Denk. They have had a very successful year climaxed by appearances at Butler University and the All-City String Ensemble Festival at the World War Memorial. The ensembles took first place at the Ensemble Festival last year.

COUNCIL COMBINES WORK AND FUN

Each homeroom elects one representative to be a member of Howe's Student Council, which meets every two weeks.

The Council held its first assembly program in the fall. At the assembly, the various activities which Howe has to offer students were presented in a most appealing fashion. Their second program, held in the spring, presented Howites in a talent show.

Last fall, the Council procured a television set which was placed in the cafeteria while the World Series games were being played.

Judy Springer attended the National Student Council convention in Denver, Colorado, last summer, representing Howe. Her report was given at the fall assembly.

“B” DAY

Hey, Mr. Mellott! What's a good headline for this article? This is only one of the perplexing problems carried to Wayne Mellott, sponsor of the HOWE TOWER.

Howe's bi-weekly school paper is planned by the editors, John Shreve and Jeanette Dixon, about two weeks ahead of the publication deadline. Page editors then plan their pages and send "beat" notices to the reporters, who know this means to come to the TOWER to get their assignments.

Also summoned to the TOWER on "beat" day are the editorial, column, and feature writers. These people are given instructions as to the topic of their writing for the next issue. The reporters busy themselves by running around the building, interviewing teachers and students alike.

When these assignments are turned in, they're typed by the typists, then copyread and given headlines. As the copy comes back from the printer, the proofreaders go to work; then the page editors make up their pages from the proofs, and the dummies are sent back to the printer. The finished product is a satisfying production to the TOWER staff and adviser.

There's always news of Howe which should be reported to the community and the rest of Indianapolis. The News Bureau handles this job efficiently. Bureau members write stories about the event or production and send them in to the local newspapers.

WE'RE SITTING ON TOP OF THE WORLD

Up three flights of stairs, around the corner, up another flight of stairs, up the spiral staircase, and finally we come to the beloved abode of the HILLTOPPER staff. The 1951 staff began work by sponsoring the "Topper Twirl" last April, and the Autograph party for the 1950 book. During summer vacation, Jo Meyer and Janet Paxton attended Indiana University's Journalism Institute for two weeks, where they worked on plans for the '51 book.

As soon as the fall semester began, business managers, Ardith Whipple and Alan Taylor, began to think of ways to balance the budget. Then came the assembly program, at which the Brown Boy and Golden Girl candidates were introduced and the first announcement was made about having individual underclass pictures in the '51 book. The subscription campaign was climaxed by the Brown and Gold dance on October 7.

Norma Dook and Phill Stevens, club and activities editors, respectively, then proceeded to make out picture schedules and decipher identification hieroglyphics. In between picture schedules and lists of names Ann Sterns, underclassman editor, tried making faces at all the underclassmen, so they would all smile while being photographed.

Alan learns from Ardith that $1 + 1$ do equal 2 when it's money at stake.

RIGHT—Jane and Alice give up after weeks of work with senior picture schedules and activity blanks.

Johnny Essex, sports editor, made sure all teams had their cheery faces and records inserted in the book. He was assisted by Bob Ware, George Propps, and Janet Lowe. George also took a number of pictures in the book.

As the "glossies" returned from the photographer, make-up editors, Jessie Corey, Jane Reed, Janet Paxton, and Annette Keith, began the taxing job of cutting and mounting them on cardboard and sending them to the engravers.

Jo Meyer, editor-in-chief, and Janet Callon, associate editor, planned the introductory section pictures and copy along with Beverly Hendrickson, photography editor, and engineered the book as a whole. As picture proofs came back from the engraver they were pasted in the "dummy," a replica of the book you are now reading, and the completed dummy was then sent to the printer.

It suddenly dawned upon the staff that all the copy was due by March 1, if the book was to get to students before June. This caught senior editors, Alice Hatcher and Jane Koten staying up one morning until 2 a. m. just so the seniors could have their activities recorded along side their pictures.

Our thanks go to Mr. Richard Brier of Indianapolis Engraving Co., Mr. Ralph Klare, of Clarence E. Crippin and Son, Printers; Kings Kraft Cover Co.; and Mr. E. C. Loudermilk, photographer, for their help on the book.

The three J's of the make-up staff, Janet, Jessie, and Jane, smooth out a layout problem.

HORNETS FINISH

The veteran-laden gridsters of Howe pooled their talents and, under the crafty guidance of Coach Sam Kelley, produced one of the most successful gridiron seasons our school has had. Some of the boys had won varsity letters as early as their sophomore year, so experience undoubtedly was a helpful asset. The scoring parade was led once again by our swivel-hipped halfback Lea Aheorn. This was the third consecutive year in which Leo took scoring honors. The Hornets also placed two men on the all-city teams picked by the newspapers of Indianapolis. These two were quarterback Frank Fox, and end Ed Dwyer. Other three-year men were Moc Laetsch, who filled a slot on the line, Earl Lewis, a halfback, and Dick deLanglade, who was chosen by his teammates at the end of the season as honorary captain. Now for a brief review of the season.

In their season debut the Hornets journeyed up to the home of the Logansport Berries and came home with a 19-7 victory attached to their belts. This was the first time Howe had ever played Logansport in any kind of athletic contest. Next for Howe was the annual battle with neighboring arch-rival, Technical. This was a closely matched contest, marked by fumbles on the part of both teams. The Hornets took the lead, 2-0, when end Bob Mogle tackled a Tech ball-carrier behind the goal-line for a safety. The lead was held for about two quarters until, in the last minutes of the game, a Greenclad plunged over for a touchdown and Tech won the game, 7-2. Steamed up by their loss to Tech, the Kelley-men then rolled over Southport. Cardinals, 32-13. Leo Ahearn was the scoring feature of the evening as he ran wild through the Southport defense for four touchdowns. Manual's Redskins then tried to halt the Hornets but proved no match for the high-scoring Irvington machine, losing by a 31-12 score.

The next game was the one everyone wanted desperately to win. No Howe eleven had ever defeated a Broad Ripple team and the Hornets wanted to break the jinx. The Rockets bottled up Ahearn but Frank Fox got loose and the Hornets won, 19-6. In the next game, against Ben Davis, the Hornets had a reversal of form. The county-leading Giants ran over Howe 13-0. This, however, was the Hornets' last defeat of the season. The wigwag of the Anderson Indians was the next destination of the Howe eleven, and the Hornets kept their victory spell over the Indians unblemished. The touchdowns were scored by Grant McBroom and Ed Dwyer as the Hornets won 13-0. All stops were pulled in the next game.

Howe drubbed county neighbor Warren Central 48-0. The Warriors had earlier held Ben Davis, a Hornet nemesis, to a tie.

In the next game Washington's Continentals proved very stubborn as the Hornets had to come from behind to win, 13-7. Howe finished the season by downing Crispus Attucks at the C. Y. O. field, 13-0. The Hornets ended the season with the enviable record of 8 wins against 2 losses.

Ed Dwyer was chosen by his teammates as the most valuable player and Grant McBroom was selected as the player having the best mental attitude.

RESERVE FOOTBALL

Following the pattern set by the varsity squad, the reserve team also had a very successful season. Several of the boys who played on the reserves dressed or saw action in a few varsity games, thus partly accounting for the high caliber of football displayed by the two teams.

In seven games the reserves were only beaten once, that defeat coming at the hands of Southport. The reserves scored 119 points, opposition, 18.

TO SECTIONAL FINALE

Coach Elwood Yeager's varsity basketball squad finished with an excellent .750 record this season, winning 16 of 22 encounters throughout the state. Three of these victories came in the Indianapolis sectionals when the Hornets defeated Beech Grove, Manual, and Southport. Their last defeat was handed the Hornets by Crispus Attucks in the final game of the sectionals.

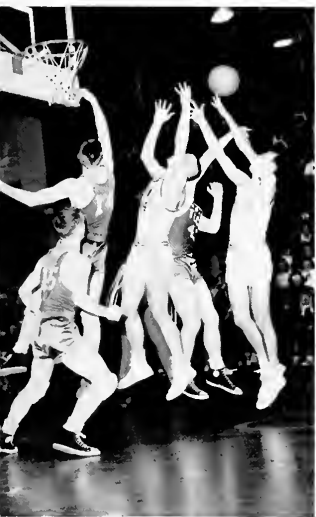

In the opening game of the 1950-51 season, Howe lost to Tech. The following week, however, saw a much improved Hornet team rally in the fourth period to defeat the Washington Continentals. Coach Yeager's squad next played host to Franklin, winning by 15 points. Kenny Wood led the scoring with 13 points. The Hornet sting then struck down the Ben Davis Giants. Wilbur Zobbe led the team with 13 points, while Fahrbach and Wood contributed 9 each.

In a four team invitational tourney in December, Howe, sparked by Fahrbach's scoring abilities, won a 67-53 victory over Broad Ripple, only to be defeated by the Green Wave again, in the second game.

Crispus Attucks, the Hornets' next victim, saw their winning streak broken by good Howe teamwork and excellent strategy on the part of Coach Yeager. Fahrbach with 16 points and Wood with 14 were high scorers for the game. Wabash gave the Brown and Gold a setback at Wabash; but Howe came home the next day to defeat Connersville by 4 points. Columbus then caused another loss, shodding the Hornets by 2 points.

McMullen (51) goes way up in the air for a shot against Ripple. Fahrbach (52) charges in for the rebound.

Howe defeated Broad Ripple for the second time before more than 4,000 fans of the Tech gym. The Hornets then gave Shortridge a thorough trouncing, 70-34. Zobbe hit 12 points, followed closely by McMullen, Schrier, and Wood.

New Albany was a team rated second in the state until they visited Howe. By superb teamwork the quintet overcome New Albany's early lead to emerge victors by three points. Wood paced the Hornets with 15 points, and McMullen contributed 12. Dwyer helped by sinking 5 free throws in the closing minutes of the game. Howe next edged out Cathedral by two points in a tight scramble.

Traveling to Terre Haute, the Hornets took a game from Garfield. They suffered a setback from Southport the following week, when the Cardinals rallied in the final minutes of the game to win by three points. The Brown and Gold ended their regular season by defeating Manual and Warren Central in their last two games.

At the annual basketball banquet Ed Dwyer was presented with the award for free throw accuracy. Charles McMullen received the award for high point man on the team, and was also chosen the most valuable player. Kenny Wood and Dwyer were elected honorary team captains.

The reserve squad, coached by Lewis Gilfoy, took first place in city competition this year. Coach E. Franklin Fisher's freshman team also won first berth in frosh competition throughout the city. Honorary captains of the reserve team were Don Thomas and Myles Koch.

TRACK TEAM COMES OUT AHEAD!!

Howe's track team had a very successful 1950 season, climaxed by an upset victory over Tech in the City Track Meet. The first meet, indoors, was held with Broad Ripple. Howe, being in very good condition after a long, hard practice, beat Ripple by more than 40 points.

Howe then downed Crispus Attucks by more than 60 points. Jack Wellman scored in the mile run. Ernie Phelps and Don Franz placed first and second, respectively, in the high hurdles.

The Warren Central Warriors met the Hornets on the Howe track. Warren had a good team, but not good enough. They were downed by more than 60 points. In the Hoosier High School Relays, with 17 other schools participating, Howe took third place.

Shortridge and Jefferson of Lafayette ran against Howe in a three-way meet here. Howe triumphed over Shortridge by a 48 point margin, with Jefferson placing third. The meet began with the crowning of the Track Queen, Janet Graves.

When the City Track Meet rolled around, everyone thought Tech would win. But the Hornets had different plans, and proved their ability by knocking the defending champs, Tech, into second place.

Howe twenty-first	State Track Meet

Since the beginning of Howe's track career, the Hornets have lost only 11 of 165 dual meets.

The 1950 Howe Track Team won the City Championship Crown by defeating more than ten other teams. Championship team members were: Ernie Phelps, hurdles, relay (captain); Bob Mogle, 440, shot put, relay; Chuck McMullen, 440, relay; Kent Pierce, 880, relay; Leslie Swineheart, mile; Don Franz, hurdles, pole vault; Jack Edgington, high jump, broad jump; Dick Oberlies, shot put; Don Meek, relay, 440; Morand Roth, dashes; Bill Stafford, relays; Jack Wellman, mile, relays; and Keith Quillen, broad jump.

Wellman and Quillen received the Most Valuable Player Award and the Best Mental Attitude Award, respectively.

The coaches for the 1950 teams were Ray Bowman, varsity, head coach; assisted by Rex Anderson, reserve; and Franklin Fisher, freshman.

HORNETS HUSTLE THROUGH THIRD SEASON

Howe's third baseball season had two strikes on it before the season started, in that it was riddled by graduation the year before. We lost the boys who had been mainstays the two preceding seasons, and Coach Roscoe Pierson had to build the team around 5 returning lettermen: captain Wayne Engleman, Loren Patter, Jack Young, Farrell Patrick, and Louis Faenzi.

The hustling Hornets started their season by losing 3 in a row, to Shortridge 7-4, Washington 8-1, and to Cathedral 14-0. Howe then won its first game by downing Manual 5-2. Crispus Attucks had to come fram behind to win, 7-5, before Franklin Township ran over the Hornets, 14-8. Shortridge did better in their second game against the Hornets than they did in their first, punishing the Irvington diamond men by a 22-8 score. Broad Ripple's veteran pitcher Forrest Reehling threw a 2-hitter at the Hornets in the next game, to Rockets winning, 7-1.

In the city tourney Howe drew Cathedral as its first foe and almost beat the Irish who earlier had downed them but lost, 3-2.

Dick Schrier tags up at first base against Manual.

RESERVE BASEBALL TEAM

SECOND ROW—Steiner, LeBeau, Ross, Renner, Thompson, Luke, Hall, Coach Harrison Richardson.

The Hornets then traveled to the nest of Southport's Cardinals, and the Cards proved very inhospitable as they smothered the Howe men 13-1. In their last game the boys from Violet Hill won over Warren Central 2-1, as Bill Garrison hurled a 3-hitter. The victory ended an otherwise sour season on a sweet note and gave indications of improvement for the next season.

Jack Young was voted by his teammates as the most valuable player.

HARRIERS HAVE .500 SEASON

The Columbus Bulldogs were Howe's first cross country opponents of the 1950 season. A Columbus harrier capped the blue ribbon on our own cross country course. Ronnie Dougherty, of Howe, took the second place ribbon with a time of eleven minutes. Fred Monschein and Dave Boucher finished third and fourth respectively for the home team. Howe won the contest by an eleven point margin.

The next meet found Howe again gaining the margin of victory from Crispus Attucks, 25 to 37. Howe's third meet found the Broad Ripple Rockets falling to the sting of the Hornets, 20 to 35.

LINKSMEN HAVE .333 SEASON

Hornet linksmen wound up a fairly successful season by defeating Ben Davis in their last match. The team this year was composed mostly of underclassmen. They overcame part of their lack of experience with the able coaching of Mr. Fred Lemley.

The turfmen dished out defeats to Cathedral, Manual, Ben Davis, and Crispus Attucks of the city schools. The linksmen swatted out sixth place in a fourteen team field at Batesville, and placed eleventh in a twenty-eighth teamfield in the I. S. H. A. A. State Regional.

Dick Theobald topped his teammates' averages by maintaining 86 strokes average per meet for the season.

The squad, not wanting to remain idle during the winter, worked indoors on principles and fundamentals of the game.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Howe cross country team finished the 1950 season with a record of five wins and five losses. Coach Bowman successfully trained several competent runners but there were no individual stars on this year's team. The Hornets defeated Columbus, Attucks, Fillmore, Broad Ripple, and Warren Central during the season. Fred Monschein was elected honorary team captain.

A cross country meet is unlike any other sport. The skill and fortitude needed to conquer the 2½ mile course of roads, fields, and streams is tremendous. The team with the lowest number of points wins the meet, whereas in most other sports the highest number of points wins.

Here are the results of the Intramural Basketball League. In the Junior and Senior division it was found that the "age of Wonders" still exists as the team by that name, the Wonders, swept the league title away from the other teams with a 10-1 season record.

The league championship of the Freshman and Sophomore League was won by the Bangers, who proved they could bang away pretty effectively at that basket. They also won the title by having an envious season record of 10-1.

The two championship teams met to decide who was to be the champ of Howe and the older Wonders won a hard fought game from the Bangers, 27-23.

G. A. A. INCREASES ACTIVITIES PROGRAM

For that trim figure you read about in ads, and a look of vitality, come around any Thursday afternoon on the girls' side of the gym, and try your skill at some of the many activities in which girls belonging to the Girls' Athletic Association participate.

This year the G. A. A. has joined the Indiana League of High School Girls' Athletic Association.

This is a state organization with a unified point system on a variety of activities.

Several new activities were added to the G. A. A. schedule this year. There was a Folk Dance Festival held on April 23 in which anyone could participate. One required dance was exhibited by students along with one folk dance of their own choice.

Other activities of the members of G. A. A. were the spring Track Meet on May 3, the Gym Meet, April 12, a Modern Dance Program on May 17, and participation in a physical education demonstration at Shortridge on May 18.

Sports and games which are held each year during seasonal interest are softball, volleyball, basketball, ping-pong, and bowling.

In the spring you may see some of the G. A. A. members running track, or participating in other recreational sports.

Pictured on the opposite page are Janet Graves and Sara Spradling on a popular piece of apparatus, the parallel bars. Also to be found are the side horse and mats on which you may see girls doing some almost impossible stunts.

Officers who presided over the G. A. A.'s business meetings every other Tuesday evening were: Jessie Corey, president; Sara Spradling, vice-president; Jane Koten, secretary.

Miss Shirley Diehl, new to the physical education department this year, was the sponsor.

this was howe . . .

Through this yearbook, the 1951 Hilltopper, we have tried to bring back all the memories of the dances, games, classes, and friends you have known and will want to remember. This was Howe's thirteenth year and we proved that thirteen need not be unlucky. Look back to the beginning of this high school and it will be hard to find a better year. Our closing wish is that the future years of Thomas Carr Howe High School may be as prosperous.
